Re: Legislative Update

Friday, April 22 was the deadline for policy committees to hear and report fiscal bills to fiscal committees for measures still in their house of origin. The policy deadline for non-fiscal bills is Friday, May 6. To remain active and continue moving through the legislative process, bills must have met these policy deadlines. Both houses of the Legislature took action on hundreds of bills last week, with 1114 bills failing passage.

Below is a list of bills we are currently tracking on CPPCA's behalf that continue to move through the Legislature, as well as notable bills of interest that failed to pass from committee.

Other deadlines are on the horizon, with the house of origin deadline on June 3 which is the last day for legislative items to pass out of their first house:

- May 6 — Last day for policy committees to hear and report to the Floor non-fiscal bills
- May 27 — Last day for fiscal committees to hear and report bills to the Floor.
- May 31– June 3 — Floor Session only.
- June 3 — Last day to pass bills out of house of origin

The looming May 27 fiscal committee deadline means that Appropriation committees are gearing up with full vigor to meet and hear all fiscal measures remaining in their house of origin. Hundreds of bills will be heard over the next few weeks and must pass from committee to stay active. We will continue to keep you updated on important actions.

Additionally, legislative budget committees continue to meet weekly to review the Governor's proposed budget leading up to the May revise scheduled to be released in mid-May.

Please don't hesitate to contact us if you have any questions, concerns or comments. We are honored to represent CPPCA in the halls of the Capitol.
